

G-BIACK WINS AGAIN!

Samuel Nderitu Receiving the award

Mrs. Veronica Receiving the award for the best farmer

Despite the Coronavirus pandemic that has affected every economic sector all over the world, the GROW BIOINTENSIVE Agriculture Centre of Kenya performed very well this year. As we come to the close of the year, we are happy to report that G-BIACK managed to retain its position as the best organization and the best exhibitor during the Participatory Ecological Land Use Management PELUM - Kenya association annual exhibitions event where they were also celebrating the silver jubilee and their 25 years since the organization was started. PELUM Kenya is a membership network of 57 NGOs in Kenya and has been holding annual exhibition event each year.

In addition to this big win, our farmer, Mrs. Veronica Murugi, 75yrs old, emerged the best farmer in the Nairobi and Central Zones, one of the four administrative units of PELUM-Kenya association.

Being the best organization three years in a row and having the best farmer does not come easily. It is the result of the collaborative venture and teamwork among our very able staff members who work diligently both at our centre and in the communities. We also wish to thank all our partners and friends for their continued support and for believing in us. We wish to continue working hard in the years to come so that together we can make this world a better place for all of us. In order to celebrate with us, G-BIACK requests each person who reads this newsletter to plant a tree for remembrance and to show solidarity for our win.

Finally, we wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy 2021. Stay safe!
